Fr. Joseph's Visa will be expiring, which means he will be leaving the United States and our Parish. The exciting part is that he will be able to go to India to see his family which is long overdue. His last day at our parish will be Easter Sunday. We are so grateful for having him for the last year & half. We will be assigned a new priest but at this time we have not received official word from our Bishop. As soon as we get notification, everyone will be informed.

MOVING SALE - Since Fr. Joseph will be going back to India, he is needing to sell all his belongings.

- Moving sale at Andary Hall on March 8th right after Mass.
- We will need help hauling items from his house to the hall. If you can help, please contact Selina.
