The Second Sunday of Easter, also called the Sunday of Divine Mercy, is celebrated the week after Easter Sunday, commemorating the resurrection of Jesus Christ and emphasizing His mercy and forgiveness. This day recalls the appearance of Jesus to His disciples after His resurrection, where He showed them His hands and side, offering peace and strengthening their faith. It is a day for Christians to reflect on faith, hope, and love and to celebrate the mercy of God.

Retreats for Adults at Silent Meadows

St. Teresa of Avila

In this retreat we will meet this sixteenth century woman of faith who went through many obstacles on her way to a loving relationship with God. She was a mystic and Doctor of the Church. Her writings and her life are an example of how we can live very much in the world and at the same time be intimately connected to a loving God who guides our way.
